Government Reflection

WHK - Forms of Government	With help, I have some success.	I can recall specific vocabulary, list positive and negative aspects of governments, identify examples of when different types of governments existed, and recognize similarities between types of governments.	I can assess the benefits and drawbacks of different government systems throughout history.	Additionally, I can analyze differences between theory of forms of government and the reality of those forms in practice.

Types of Governments:

- Absolute Monarchy
- Communism
- Socialism
- Theocracy
- Democracy
- Totalitarianism

Directions: Look through the list of governments below and respond to the following two prompts.

1. Imagine you are a leader. Explain which type of government you would want be leader of and why.
2. Next, imagine you are a regular citizen. Explain which type of government you would want to live under and why.
