

Minard Chart

Name:

Date:

1. When was this document created?
2. Who is the author?
3. What words or names do you recognize, or believe have similar English translations?
4. To the best of your ability, briefly describe this document:
5. List what the document shows.
6. Why do you think the author decided to show the event in this way?

Napoleon's Account of the Internal Situation of France in 1804

Name:

Date:

1. When was the document created?
2. Who is the author?
3. Is this document trustworthy? Why or why not?
4. List Napoleon's accomplishments after becoming emperor:
5. How do these accomplishments benefit the French people post-revolution?
6. Why does Napoleon believe he was the best leader for France?
7. Why is it important, according to Napoleon, that the leadership of the country is passed down through a direct line (father to son) from either himself, or his brothers Joseph and Louis?

The Civil Code

Name:

Date:

1. Who wrote the Civil Code? (Hint, it's not just one person.)
2. When was it published?
3. Why is it important? (Think beyond the borders of France)
4. What does the first right in Title 1, Chapter 1 say about civil rights as it relates to your behavior?
5. Is this Civil Code what French Revolutionaries wanted when they started the revolution? Why or why not?
6. How are foreigners treated? What rights can you point to as evidence?
7. Are men's and women's rights in marriage and divorce equal? Why or why not? Use specific quotes as part of your answer.