

Interpreting Maps (worldmapper.org)

Name:

- Afghanistan
- Nigeria
- People's Republic of China
- Russia
- Germany
- Iran
- Dominican Republic

Directions: At each station,

- Fill in the number and the title of the chart
- Describe how your country compares to the rest of the world

Station # _____: _____

Station # _____: _____

Station # _____: _____

Station # _____: _____

Station # _____: _____

Station # _____: _____

Evidence - Geographical Knowledge	I have some success.	I can recall geographic terms, and can identify general areas where geographic features exist.	I can successfully demonstrate my knowledge of geography.	Additionally, I can successfully analyze geographical visuals and readings.
-----------------------------------	----------------------	--	--	---

Once you have recorded notes from each station, answer the following questions.

1. On which maps was your country easy to find? Explain why.
2. Explain why your country looks different on each map? (In other words, why does the shape of the country change from map to map?)
3. List what you learned about your country from looking at the maps.
4. Are these maps accurate, why or why not?
5. Why do you think these different maps of the world were created?